March 2 is Dr. Seuss Day! Remember to clean up a mess with the Cat in the Hat, dance around with Fox in Sox, hear a Who with Horton, count the red and blue fish, help the Grinch see the error of his ways, or listen to Sam I Am's friend complain about his dish of green eggs and ham!

March 17 is St. Patrick's Day which means that everybody gets to share in the luck o' the Irish for one great day. And just like you never want to be caught not wearing green on St. Patty's Day, you never want to be stuck without something good to read. So, check out one of these books set in Ireland!

- ◆ Jamie O'Rourke and the Big Potato
- ◆ The Irish Cinderlad
- ◆ The King of Ireland's Son
- ◆ The Names Upon the Harp
- ◆ Mrs. McCool and the Giant Cuhullin

Message from the Principal

BE THERE!

Regular attendance in elementary school sets up a good pattern for your youngster's entire school career. Show your child that school comes first by trying to keep days off for illnesses and family emergencies. Also, schedule routine doctor and dentist appointments for after school or over school break.
